

A Walk In The Woods

With USDA NRCS and Northern RI Conservation District

Join NRCS and Conservation District staff at Mapleville's Addieville East Farm to learn how you can manage your woodland to enhance forest health and productivity, improve wildlife habitat, and more! We will visit three patch cut sites, learn more about Addieville East, and discuss federal funding opportunities for managing your forest land. This rain-or-shine tour will cover 1-2 miles over occasionally rough terrain.

Please call or visit nricd.org to register and receive directions to the meeting point, which is at a side entrance to Addieville not open to the public.
