

Don't Treat Your Soil Like Dirt!
Scituate Conservation Commission Annual Meeting
March 11, 2014

Resources

Interested in learning more about the Northern RI Conservation District or programs that the Natural Resources Conservation Service has to offer?

Contact:

Kate Sayles, Agriculture and Forestry Tech- NRICD

Ksayles.nricd@gmail.com, 401.934.0840

Composting Resources (all of these will be linked to our website for easy navigation):

Conservation Farming in the Scituate Reservoir Watershed- NRICD Bulletin Vol. 3, 2012: Don't Treat Your Soil Like Dirt! : <http://www.nricd.org/2012-10-ConsFarming.pdf>

Building your own bin out of pallets: <http://www.instructables.com/id/Pallet-Compost-Bin/>

Building a bin out of chicken wire: <http://www2.ca.uky.edu/enri/pubs/enri307.pdf>

Building a bin out of a trash can:

<http://www2.ca.uky.edu/enri/pubs/enri311.pdf>

Building a bin out of cinder blocks:

<http://www4.uwm.edu/shwec/publications/cabinet/factsheets/ConcreteBlockCompostBin.pdf>

Making a compost screen:

<http://www.instructables.com/id/Compost-Screen/>

More Information:

Master Composter Training- University of Rhode Island

http://www.uri.edu/cels/ceoc/ceoc_programs_mcrp.html

Vermiculture: The Worm Ladies of Charlestown

<http://www.wormladies.com/>

Video on Feeding Chickens Compost:

<http://permaculturenews.org/2013/12/06/grow-chickens-without-buying-grain-feeding-compost/>